Katrina,

Here is the link to the ftp site.

When you log into the site, the Wilcox Oil library will be listed at the bottom of the side bar or you can go directly to the library at <http://epa6rac.eaest.com/Wilcox%20Oil/Forms/AllItems.aspx>

Your current user name and password should still work.

Teresa, didn't you have an FTP site available for me to download documents? I may be confused. I cannot find any information on it, but I thought I downloaded the ODEQ investigation reports. Anyway, some of them may not have had all of the references. I found the full document with references for Lorraine, and it has an interesting article on Wilcox and its updated operations. The article is attached.
